EGL Intern, Enabling Good Lives Christchurch

- Are you keen to make a difference for disabled people and whānau?
- Do you want to be an essential part of a team committed to transforming the disability support system alongside disabled people, whānau and communities?
- Full time with flexible accommodations available, fixed term role for one year

Have you heard about Enabling Good Lives? We have a fantastic opportunity for someone new to employment to gain professional experience within the Health and Disability Sector.

Ko wai mātou | About Us

Whaikaha—Ministry of Disabled People has a unique mandate of having responsibility to steward change across Government, while commissioning disability support services, as well as transforming how these services are commissioned and delivered.

Disabled people expect to have greater choice and control over the supports and services they receive to lead their best life. We are committed to this by strengthening relationships and working in partnership with disabled people, tāngata whaikaha Māori, Pacific disabled people and their whānau.

Whaikaha presents an exciting opportunity to make a real difference. The call for "Nothing about us, without us" is an integral part of our operation.

Mō tēnei tūranga mahi | About the Role

Enabling Good Lives Christchurch works to build relationships with disabled people and their whānau. The kaupapa is to support disabled people and whānau to build aspirational plans for living the life of their choosing. We are diverse, inclusive, and aim to reflect the population we serve.

The EGL Intern will support the team members out in the community and with office-based tasks. These will be based on your own employment goals and aspirations and could include:

- Assist team members with their paperwork and computer tasks
- Conduct research into mainstream options and opportunities for young people, on behalf of the connector team
- Review existing policies and procedures, documents and files and organise them into an easy-to-use library

This role would be perfect for someone who is just starting out on their employment journey and who has an interest in connecting with the disabled community. The role itself can be tailored to suit the successful candidate's areas of interest and experience.
