Manager Planning, Risk and Assurance

- Lead change and improve outcomes for disabled people, tāngata Whaikaha Māori, Pacific disabled people and their whānau.
- Join an organisation that genuinely cares about its people and the community that they serve.
- Flexible location across any of our 7 national locations

Are you an inclusive and engaging leader looking for your next challenge? As we prepare to grow our organisation, we have created a new Manager Planning, Risk and Assurance role.

Ko wai mātou | About Us

Whaikaha—Ministry of Disabled People's mandate is to provide leadership on policy settings relating to disabled people; and to transform the disability services through our commissioning work.

We are committed to strengthening relationships and working in partnership with disabled people, tāngata Whaikaha Māori, Pacific disabled people and whānau to provide them with a voice and support them to realise their own potential and aspirations.

Whaikaha presents an exciting opportunity to make a real difference. The call for "Nothing about us, without us" is an integral part of our operation.

Whaikaha has just completed its organisation design and is making some targeted investment in key areas to enable its mandate.

Mō tēnei tūranga mahi | About the Role

As Manager Planning, Risk and Assurance you will manage the Planning, Risk and Assurance function for Whaikaha.

This role keeps us safe and ensures that we deliver the work we have planned, with right controls and process in place for the services we deliver.

The Planning, Risk and Assurance team ensures our activities are undertaken to a high standard, and that we are effectively managing organisational and environmental risks.

This role also provides secretariat support to the Risk and Audit Committee.

Ngā Pūkenga me ngā wheako i | What you will bring:

You have extensive experience at a senior level in managing a risk, assurance, and integrity function in the public sector and/or a large complex national organisation.

You have proven expertise in promoting internal control and risk management techniques throughout an organisation.

Working closely with the Deputy Chief Executive, Corporate Services you set the direction and objectives for the risk and assurance function at Whaikaha, guide the assurance work schedule, and implement these with our employees and other stakeholders.

Creating an inclusive environment where our kaimahi can succeed is central to how you lead. You are an experienced leader who thrives on leading and mentoring your team.

Salary range:

$138,378-$205,566

Tono Mai | We encourage you to apply:

We encourage applications from people of all backgrounds.

All our kaimahi must be able to establish credibility and trust, and have empathy for the unique and diverse experiences of disabled people. We welcome applications from disabled people, or those who have a lived experience of disability through whānau or community involvement. Currently, just under 40% of our kaimahi identify as disabled people and we want this number to grow. The position description provides information on the other skills and expertise relevant to the role being advertised.

Joining Whaikaha means being part of a whānau that celebrates the diversity each individual brings. We care about the wellbeing and success of our people and provide a supportive and inclusive working environment where people can thrive and be who they really are. We are committed to the application of Te Tiriti o Waitangi in all levels of our work.
