- Growth and development opportunities
- Flexible working arrangements available

Support engagement with managers to implement the financial strategy, embed best-practice financial processes and grow the financial management capability across the Ministry, to support quality decision-making about the services we fund.

Ko wai mātou | About Us:

Whaikaha – Ministry of Disabled People has a unique mandate of having responsibility to steward change across Government, while commissioning disability support services; as well as transforming how these services are commissioned and delivered.

Disabled people expect to have greater choice and control over the supports and services they receive to lead their best life. We are committed to this by strengthening relationships and working in partnership with disabled people, tāngata whaikaha Māori, Pacific disabled people and their whānau.

Whaikaha presents an exciting opportunity to make a real difference. The call for "Nothing about us, without us" is an integral part of our operation.

Mō tēnei tūranga mahi | About the Role:

As the Finance Business Partner, you will work with the Principal Financial Business Partner to ensure that financial information is captured and recorded accurately, to create robust financial datasets that allow for in-depth analysis and data interpretation.

You will use your experience in the development of reports and presentations for managers, to communicate insights gleaned from complex financial data.

You will partner with the business to provide advice that will help inform senior and executive business leaders with their decision-making on the large number of services we fund.

Alternate formats of this advertisement and PDs can be found here www.whaikaha.govt.nz/fin-ana

Ko wai koe | About You:

You will have solid demonstrable experience in Management Accounting and/or Business Partnering, preferably in the Government sector, and a deep understanding of the accounting discipline. This will be paired with a Chartered Accountant full membership of CAANZ or CPA.

Your proven experience working with large complex datasets, collating information and monitoring results effectively will see you use your advanced Microsoft Excel skills to produce reporting that effectively communicates insights to support senior leaders' decision-making.

Your excellent attention to detail and ability to gather, arrange and communicate information effectively, will be the keys to success in this role.

You will have sound judgement and problem-solving skills with the ability to analyse information and provide multiple solutions as well as influence decisions for the best outcome.

You will have strong relationship building and interpersonal skills to connect with colleagues in Whaikaha and across our 3 partner agencies.

To undertake this role successfully, you will be a disabled person or be able to establish credibility and trust with the disability community, as well as having empathy and an understanding of the unique and diverse experiences of disabled people.
